

Homeschooling and Scouting

A Networking Opportunity for Homeschooling Families

Homeschooling, Scouting, and Your Family

There are lots of homeschoolers in Scouting - and Cascade Pacific Council is building a specialized Homeschool Scouting Network! We would love for you to be a part of it!

The Boy Scout program compliments the goals of Homeschooling in more ways than one. Many families find that the program helps supplement schoolwork. Some families have found that the Merit Badge Program integrates well with the curriculum they are required to teach their children and have even gotten school credit for it!

Scouting Activities for Homeschooling Families

Your family can look forward to getting together with other Scouting homeschool families at picnics, educational outings and even special camping events as we begin to build opportunities for networking and Scout advancement integrated with educational learning topics. As we continue to develop this new partnership, we will be looking at offering activities quarterly, which may include structured family campouts that offer advancement opportunities at all levels, specialized events (i.e. first aid clinic), and other networking opportunities.

The first gathering of homeschool Scouters will be a family picnic on June 25, 2015 from 4:00-8:00pm at Cub World (11300 SE 147th Ave, Happy Valley OR 97086). All homeschooling families are welcome to join us, so please spread the word amongst your friends.

To ensure that you're informed of the details about our special gatherings, be sure to join our newsletter mailing list by contacting the Portland Service Center or emailing camping@cpcbsa.org.

If you're interested in being part of our growing steering committee, please contact Jennifer Mooney at 503.225.5712 or jennifer.mooney@scouting.org
